Innovative

The Nano Core FCC is built on modern IoT technology and industry standards. It is securely connected in real time to our online management platform and fully complies with the highest security requirements.

Modular

The Nano Core FCC features a modular design with hot swappable interface cards and DIN rail mounted modules. These can be replaced easily, reducing installation and maintenance effort and ensuring a low TCO.

Robust

The forecourt controller application is a proven solution, refined through more than 30 years of continuous improvement. It is MID approved and runs fully isolated from the operating system ensuring long term reliability and compliance.

NANO CORE FCC
